INDIANS WIN THREE OUT OF FOUR CONTESTS ON THEIR WESTERN TRIP

S. M. A., V. M. I. and H.-S. Helpless Before The Indian Hurlers—Indians Lose to Roanoke—
Two Contests Cancelled

On April the first the Indians left for their annual baseball trip. Six games were scheduled, the contests being with Staunton Military Academy at Staunton on Monday April 2nd, Virginia Military Institute on the 3rd, Roanoke College at Salem on the 4th, Virginia Polytechnic Institute at Blacksburg on the 5th, Randolph-Macon Academy at Bedford City on the 6th, and the final game with Hampden-Sidney (exhibition) at Farmville.

Two of these games had to be cancelled on account of rain and wet grounds. The V. P. I. game was called off on account of rain and the team staid in Salem instead of going to Blacksburg. On Friday the fifth at Bedford City the game was not played on account of the condition of the grounds and the disagreeable weather.

The trip was one of the most successful that the Black and Orange nine has taken for some time, the team winning three out of the four games played. Games were won from Staunton, V. M. I. and Hampden-Sidney, while one game was lost to Roanoke College.

On April 2 the Indians swamped the S. M. A. team by the score of 14 to 1. Hedrick, for the William and Mary team, held his opponents to one hit and struck out eleven while his team-mates made about as many hits as runs.

For the first three or four innings the collegians scored consistently then Lawlor, the academy relief pitcher, held them down with no runs.

The academy made its lone run in the first inning on a muffed fly ball, and a bad bounce on a throw from right to the home plate.

Score by innings: R
W. & M. ----- 3 1 3 7 0 0 0 0 — 14
S. M. A. ----- 1 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 — 1
Batteries—W. & M., Hedrick and Close; S. M. A., Shields, Lawlor and Flaherty. Umpire, Wedd.

V. M. I. GAME

Tuesday the V. M. I. team was taken into camp by the score of 5 to 4. The game was mainly a pitcher's battle between Garnett and Massey, with Garnett carrying off the honors although Massey pitched a fine game.

The Cadets were allowed only three hit by the "Chief" while the Indians gathered eight from Massey.

It was a game of nip and tuck until the last few innings when Heflin and then Murry both slammed out home runs over the left fielder's head.

Both sides put up a fine exhibition of the national pastime and it was played in short order.

Score by innings: R
M. & M. ----- 0 0 0 0 2 1 2 — 5
V. M. I. ----- 0 2 0 0 2 0 0 — 4

Batteries—W. & M., Garnett and Close and Garber; V. M. I., Massey and Cutchins. Umpire, Goodrom, W. & I.

ROANOKE GAME

Wednesday the Roanoke Collegians defeated the home team by the score of 5 to 0, the chief credit of the game being due to pitcher Craft of the Salemites. He held the Indians to two hits, which were made by Heflin and Murry. The hit by Murry was nearly a double but he was caught off the second sack.

Close pitched a very good game for William and Mary, but the team was not playing up to its usual standard.

Score by innings: R
W. & M. ----- 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 0 — 0
R. C. ----- 0 2 0 0 0 3 0 0 — 5

Batteries—W. & M., Close and Garber; Roanoke, Craft and Bharnum.

The team rested for two days and then journeyed to Farmville where it proceeded to take a game from Hamden Sidney by the score of 2 to 1.

Hedrick again came into the lime-light and held his opponents to one hit, this making 18 innings that he had pitched, allowing only two hits.

The Hampden-Sidney pitchers were easy, for the Williamsburgers gathered 7 hits off of the two youngsters sent in the box by Bernier. Long hits were made by Garber and Goslee.

Both runs were made in the first inning while H.-S. made their tally in the fifth.

Score by innings: R
H.-S. C. ----- 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 — 1

Batteries—W. & M., Hedrick and Garber; H.-S., Parish, Morton and Crosby. Umpire, Carter.

LITERARY MAGAZINE

FAVORABLY CRITICIZED BY PROF. CLARK

The March Number Up to The Standard—

Mapp's Poems are Good—Hobson's

Effort Shows Promise

The Literary Magazine for March of the current school year has been out for one week. This periodic publication of the literary efforts of the students of the College contains, in addition to the usual departments, two selections of verse, two stories, and two essays. This matter is all creditable, deserving of publication and well-arranged, though nothing in this issue of the Magazine shows any great inspiration.

Mapp, the author of the two poems, has been in college now nearly three years and has just begun to show what he can do in this kind of work. His form is pretty accurate, his diction not much forced and his nature descriptions quite true. In the present issue of the Magazine he has attempted for the first time, so far as I am aware, something a little different from descriptions of nature. I mean the poem entitled "Down at the Mill" which is distinctly worth while, and Mapp should persevere in his efforts to master the very difficult art of writing verse.

The author of the essay on "The William and Mary Library" has done his work in an entertaining manner. Such an essay obviously does not call for much originality but it is a good sort of thing for a person to begin with. Mr. Hobson has great promise for the years to come.

Mr. W. D. Harris, the editor of the Magazine last session, undertook a big problem when he tackled the subject of internationalism but he said what he had to say in a most direct and simple way—and what he had to say was worth saying. There are unmistakeable evidences that men are thinking internationally today and the author of this essay has set something down for us to reflect upon.

The two stories are interesting and readable. "A Run of Whiskey," though dealing with a common theme and often-used plot, gives this theme a different turn from the ordinary story of this kind. The surprise at the end, making it only a dream, is effectively handled and is somewhat

EASTER GERMANS

PI KAPPA ALPHA MEN ENTERTAIN

German Club and Subscription Dances Are

Given—Patriotism Manifest in Delightful

Holiday Festivities

Society entered the dancing project here Friday night with almost unprecedented interest when the first of the Easter dances was given by the Pi Kappa Alpha Fraternity. The German club dance followed on Saturday night, and an subscription dance was given Monday evening at the Colonial Inn.

The first two dances were given in the College Gymnasium, which was bedecked with an array of beautiful flowers, evergreens, and fraternity decorations, in addition to a row of American flags which encircled the hall, giving a particularly patriotic impression. On Friday night dancing began at nine and lasted to two o'clock, the couples having a most joyous evening, as they glided around the hall in time to the music of a Richmond orchestra. Early in the evening a delightful repast was served.

The most distinct feature of the dances was the Pi Kappa Alpha figure. Around the room, at the playing of our national anthem, the couples wound in and out until the fraternity letters were formed. American flags were given as favors. Led by Doctor and Mrs. G. G. Hankins the following couples participated in the figure:

Mrs. W. S. Shackelford with Shackelford, Miss Elizabeth Macon with W. L. Parker, Miss Ruth Ford with J. W. Stephens, Miss Mary Kent with Jenkins, Miss Nieve with Tolson, Miss Margaret Tyler with E. A. Stephens, Miss Ronfro with H. C. Parker, Miss Ido Byrd Warwick with Ellis, Frances Keindal with A. D. Parker, Mrs. Sydney Brooks with Brent, Miss Alvey with Derieux, Miss Elizabeth Warwick with Brittingham, Miss Mary Lyon Tyler with Omohundro, Miss Mabel Brooks with Graham.

On account of a decsion recently reached by the Faculty and students that the College session is to be shortened, it is highly probable that no more dances will be given this year.

The Senior Class of Deep Creek High School visited the College on Saturday.

RES MILITARIS

With the securing of an officer to take charge of the military training introduced by action of the students, all doubts as to its effectiveness have been expelled. A dark cloud hovered over our campus as long as there was uncertainty in getting a capable leader. A large percentage of students, although in favor of military training, feared its undertaking under the supervision of student officers.

No reproach can be borne against the patriotism of those who with some hesitancy decided to cast their lot with the advocates of military training directed by students. Their delay was not due to selfish motives but to a high sense of duty to their country. They cared little for being first, if they were not right. They had not then been convinced that this method of military instruction would increase their capacity for service. Many felt that they would be of greater service in other pursuits, but declared their willingness to go to the front when called.

It is our opinion that these students deserve commendation for their stand. Too often where the situation is novel, the emotions outweigh the judgement, and the consequences are bad. Such a condition should be guarded against by the masses of educated people. Nothing is to be gained by an outburst of enthusiasm and excitement, unless proper deliberation has dictated the way of action.

Last Thursday, after a number of the students indicated their intention to go to summer training encampments, a vote favorable to closing College on May 31 was recorded by the students. It is probable that the Board of Visitors at their next session will affect this change. The faculty have given their approval.

This week went into effect a ruling of the Faculty, shortening each lecture period ten minutes and beginning lectures at 8:30 instead of 9:00 a. m. As a result classes will end at 2:30 p. m. and the time accumulated will be devoted to drill under the direction of Captain Puller of the Richmond Blues.

CHAMPIONSHIP RACE

The baseball teams of the Eastern Virginia Intercollegiate Association are ready for the race to the championship. After playing preliminary contests, the records of the teams make William and Mary and Richmond College favorites. Randolph-Macon has played in flashes, while Hampden-Sidney has indicated signs of weakness.

Wednesday in Richmond the Indians and Spiders clash, and though odds will favor the team playing on the home grounds, if our team gives the pitcher the proper kind of support, victory is almost certain. It is true that Richmond has seven of her last year's nine on the team, but it must be recalled that these veterans were able to register only three safe blows off the delivery of Garnett last spring in the game here. Garnett is in good trim. A telegram Wednesday night announcing a victory for the Indians should not be a surprise.

Attention is called to the alumni subscribers that the business department is in need of their paying up their subscription to The Flat Hat for the year. Several bills have to be met and an immediate response to this notice would be greatly appreciated.

Business Manager.

GENERAL CONVENTION OF #### SIGMA UPSILON HELD EASTER

The bi annual Sigma Upsilon convention was held with the Gordon-Hope chapter Saturday and Monday during Easter. Delegates from several college chapters assembled Saturday morning and chairman R. B. Marston, of the Osiris Chapter, of Randolph-Macon, immediately called the convention to order. Since the chapters in the extreme western states and south could not get here the convention could not be called representative. However, matters which were taken up at the convention had been voted on by the other chapters through letters.

One interesting thing which the convention took up was that of alumni chapters. There is a group of Sigma Upsilon men in New York, assistant editors and managers of leading newspapers, playwrights, poets and story writers, who asked for an alumni chapter which request was granted by the convention.

Officers of the Sigma Upsilon were also elected. These officers who hold their positions for two years are: President, R. B. Marston, Ashland, Va.; Secretary, I. W. Robertson; Historian, Prof. Fulton, Davidson College, N. C., and Treasurer, C. T. Logan, Cincinnati, Ohio.

The convention adjourned Monday morning in time for the delegates to catch the noon train.

ACADEMY GAMES

In an easy and slow game William and Mary Academy had but slight difficulty in bringing home the "Ham" from Smithfield High by a score of 26 to 1.

Smithfield got her only score in the fifth inning, scoring on an error, while the Academy scored in every frame excepting the second. The game was retarded by the cold weather and a poor field.

The all round playing of Capt. Atwill of the Smithfielders was of high order, while the two doubles and two triples by McGinnes of the Academy was notable.

Score by innings: R H E
W. M. A. 1 0 5 5 5 1 5 1 3-26 24 4
S. H. S. 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 0 0-1 6 10

Batteries, Hudson and West; West and Stout.

The Academy was defeated by Newport News High School in a very close and exciting game in Newport News Wednesday morning by a score of 3 to 1.

The fielding of both teams was good but the base running of the home team was ragged. Had not the breaks of the game been with Newport News the score would have been quite different. The Academy will show a reversed score when they play here on April 24th.

Score by innings: R H E
N. N. H. S. 0 0 2 0 1 0 0 0 -3 6 3
W. M. A. 0 0 0 0 0 0 1 0 0 -1 7 3

PERSONAL MENTION

Nichols and Bibb have resigned from the Academy to go to V. M. I. for the course in military training offered there.

I. H. Thrift and Walker have joined the Richmond Howitzers but will not leave College until the close of the session.

Among the alumni who were here for the dances were: Presson, P. P. Taylor, Stephens, Parker, Snackelford and Blackwell.

A. P. Robinson recently underwent an operation at St. Luke's hospital, Richmond, for appendicitis. He is recovering rapidly.

LITERARY MAGAZINE

in the vein of O. Henry. "The Foot Key" has more originality of plot, is more gripping in interest and is told with greater simplicity and directness. It is really a very good story of its kind and probably would deserve to be called the best thing in the March Magazine.

Mr. Derring's sketch of Winfield Scott reminds us again of the heritage that we possess in William and Mary and is an effort to utilize that heritage for the enriching, guiding and inspiring those who are now living and laboring here. So may it be. Let us be masters of our past that we may be neither satisfied with it nor discouraged by it.

WILLIAM AND MARY BATTAL- ION PREPARING FOR SERVICE

For the past week the campus of William and Mary has resembled at times one of a military institution. Last Monday the students organized into a battalion under the command of W. F. C. Ferguson and since that time have been drilling daily. Copeland, Maynard, Ellis, Weikert and Lewis took charge of the squads and the students have rapidly acquired the ability to move in unison. They make a fine appearance as they march across the campus. Several members of the faculty are also drilling in the company.

President Tyler announced last Thursday that he had secured the services of Captain Puller, of the Richmond Blues, to command the William and Mary battalion. Captain Puller takes charge of the work on Tuesday. With the services of this officer the student organization should rapidly develop into an efficient military unit

WILLIAM AND MARY DELEGATE LAUDS BLUE RIDGE, N. C.

No one denies the fact that our lives are greatly influenced by our environment, and especially the personalities with whom we come into contact. This being true we should deem it a great opportunity and privilege to come into direct contact with persons who have made their lives count for something and are rendering a service to the world. No place have I known that presents such infinite opportunities to have personal contact with really great men as does Blue Ridge, N. C., during The Southern Student's Conference. It was my great privilege to attend this conference last year and besides the above mentioned opportunities there are boundless others for widening one's mental horizon and giving a clear grasp of the meaning of life.

A trip to Blue Ridge means much in a college man's life and, though it may involve some sacrifice, I honestly believe every student who can possibly do so should avail himself of this opportunity.

Floyd T. Joyner.

STUDENTS ARE HELPING TO SOLVE THE FOOD PROBLEM

Because of the scarcity of labor and the anticipated shortage of food stuff for the coming year, and in view of the fact that the Department of Agriculture has issued warnings, advising the people to plant large crops, a number of college students hailing from the rural districts of Virginia have organized themselves into planting squads in order that they might assist the good people of Williamsburg in any way that they can in getting their gardens planted. Two gardens were planted in this manner Saturday afternoon, and many more will be planted before College closes.

In most cases the students do not make any charge for the labor, but in such cases where they see fit to do so, the proceeds will be donated to the Red Cross or some other benevolent society.
